3 Exile Groups Quit Ray Junta

MIAMI, Fla., July 25 (AP).—Three exile groups withdrew from Manuel Ray's revolutionary junta today protesting that he failed to make good his promise to enter Cuba to reactivate the anti-Castro underground.

The seceding members will form a new activist party under Manuel Urrutia, Fidel Castro's first President, a spokesman for the group told a news conference. Mr. Urrutia lives in exile in New York.

The spokesman, Jesus Dieguez, of the Revolutionary National Assembly, said the withdrawing groups included 300 "men of action."
